ROOSEVELT MIXES WITH THE KINGS

GREAT AMERICAN CITIZEN TWICE
GUEST OF KING EMMANUEL AT ROME.

INTEREST IS WORLD WIDE

Holy Father, the Pope, Bitterly Criticised on Account of Vatican Incident—Royal Dinner Finishes Day.

Rome, April 4.—Twice today Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. The King received the president at an early hour at the Quirinal with particular warmth, and they talked together for nearly an hour. This evening there was a grand dinner at the palace, given by the King and Queen in honor of Col. Roosevelt and his family. Great preparations have been going on for this event and the queen herself directed all the arrangements, directing that no detail should be neglected.

Had Strenuous Day.

In all, Mr. Roosevelt had a strenuous day. After his meeting with the King, he visited the Pantheon, where he was the object of a popular demonstration. He lunched with Ambassador Leichman and received the Italian journalists in the afternoon.

Tomorrow will be less busy. In the morning he will drive with the king and will probably spend the afternoon sightseeing. He will be the guest of the British Ambassador at dinner in the evening.

Popular Interest Aroused.

The Vatican incident, which has aroused considerable bitter comment in the newspapers, had made Mr. Roosevelt the object of intense popular interest and a crowd is constantly before the hotel where he is staying, waiting a chance to get a glimpse of him.

Received Royal Welcome.

The ex-President and his party arrived at the entrance of the Quirinal Palace at 8 P. M., where the door of his carriage was opened by the imposing figure of the royal doorkeeper, magnificent in scarlet livery with sword and baton and cocked hat, seemingly right out of the middle ages. At the foot of the grand staircase Count Tozzoni and Duke Cito, masters of ceremonies, and Count Guicciardini, gentleman in waiting to Queen Helena and a relative of the minister of foreign affairs, met the party and escorted them up the steps which were decorated with palms and flowering shrubs.

Greeted by Sovereigns.

In the great hall they were received by Count Gianotti, perfect of the palace, whose wife was Miss Kinny of New York, and by Countess Guicciardini, lady in waiting to the queen who took them through the great ballroom into a reception room hung with priceless tapestries, where they were greeted by the sovereigns, surrounded by their military and civil households.

After a short conversation, all the guests, who included the American Ambassador and Mrs. Leishman, and the staff of the embassy, adjourned to the private dining room of the king, a spacious hall hung with modern tapestry and decorated with immense plants and flowers. The dinner was enlivened by the military band in the gardens below.

Guests at Royal Dinner.

The queen had at her right Col. Roosevelt, then Princess Helena of Servia, Major J. F. Landis, military aide of the American embassy, Countess Guicciardini, John W. Garrett, first secretary; Princess Paterno, Kermit Roosevelt and Count Tozzoni. At her left sat Ambassador Leishman, Princess Vera of Montenegro, Commander Andrew T. Long, naval attaché; the Duchess Graziele-Lante, C. S. Wilson, second secretary and Count Guicciardini.

At the right of the King sat Mrs. Roosevelt, the Marquis Di San Giuliano, the foreign minister; Mrs. Landis, Gen. Brusato, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Count Brambilla and Duke Cito, commander of the royal Guirassiers. At the left of His Majesty were Mrs. Leishman, Count Gianotti, Mrs. Garrett, Count Mattioli, Minister of the Royal household, and Princess Vivaro.

Guests at Ambassador's Lunch.

Ambassador Leishman's lunch to Mr. Roosevelt included as guests Premier Luzzato, the Marquis Di San

COL. LESLIE P. ROSS, OF LAWTON, ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR

Regards The Greatest Danger Confronting People The Growing Power of the Chief Executive.

Lawton, Okla., April 2, 1910.
To the Voters of the State of Oklahoma:

For some time past I have been urged by friends to enter the race for governor, but have declined to do so in the hope that one or more of the present candidates, or some new candidate more able than I to make the race, would run and would center his fight on what I regard as the greatest danger now confronting our people, to-wit: The growing power of the chief executive of the state.
A power that is leading us away from democracy and on to autocracy at a very rapid pace.

With the power of appointment to office, the power of veto, and the power of pardon, the governor of Oklahoma can pass or defeat any measure proposed, thus practically destroying the legislative department of government.

He can do more. He may violate or evade the constitution he is sworn to support, he may divert the public fund from the purpose sacredly set aside for it by law, and through his power of appointment to office, to veto laws and to pardon criminals he can defy any attempt even to investigate his conduct, much less to impeach him.

There are in Oklahoma twenty-seven state institutions; and their combined representation in the lower house of the legislature is fifty-one out of a total of one hundred and nine members. Each representative is expected by his constituents to secure a liberal appropriation for his institution. Suppose the governor should want to force the passage of a pet measure or thwart an investigation; he would send for a representative (one at a time) from each of the counties where these several institutions are located and say to him that unless he cared to assume the responsibility of stopping his school for the next two years, he must vote for the measure; and in nine cases out of ten the representative will line-up. If fifty-one voted for the measure as a result of this coercion the governor would only need four more members to have a majority of the representatives. Can he get the four? Yes. How? Buy them With money? Oh, no! With patronage.
He would send for a representative and inquire if he has a friend or maybe a relative who would make a good warden of one of the penitentiaries, for instance. Of course he has. So he gets the appointment and
"lines up." Four good appointments would "line up" enough to secure a majority. But there are more than four good appointments, they are innumerable.

Or suppose a lawyer member of the legislature has a rich client in the penitentiary. He would be sent for and asked as to mitigating circumstances in his client's case. Certainly there would be mitigating circumstances sufficient to justify a pardon. He would secure his client's pardon and a thousand or two more of his client's money, the governor would get his vote for the "pet measure" and the people would get
"hades."

If we prefer democracy to autocracy this power must be stopped and stopped now. Let us take the power of appointment away from the governor and elect all officers by direct vote of the people; take the pardon power away from the governor and place it in a board of three members to be elected by the people. Make it a crime for the governor to coerce legislation by a threat to veto a bill, and amend the constitution so that the people may have the right to recall an officer.

Democracy means individual liberty and the rule of the people. Autocracy means graft, high taxes, evasion and violation of the constitution and the dictation of an autocrat.

Democracy would disseminate power among the people. Autocracy would concentrate it in the hands of one man.

I am a democrat and despise the autocrat under whatever name he travels.

I am persuaded that this autocratic power in the governor can never be taken away until some man is elected governor who favors its destruction. The sooner its destruction is attempted the easier it will be. The sooner it is destroyed the better it will be for the government and the people.

I, therefore, am a candidate for governor of Oklahoma subject to the action of the democratic party at the primary election on August 2.

If elected I will favor the election of all officers by direct vote of the people.

Taking the power of pardon away from the governor and vesting it in a board of three members elected by the people.

Making it a crime for the governor to coerce legislation.

Making it a felony for an official to divert the public fund from the purpose for which it was appropriated.

Requiring the state treasurer to give bond in a sum not less than a half million dollars and requiring that all money of the state shall be placed in the state treasury and deposited in banks throughout the counties of the state, provided that no bank shall have more state money at a time than the amount of its capital stock.

The protection of the bank guaranty fund by making it a felony for an officer to misappropriate it.

The abolishment of all needless offices and positions, of which there are entirely too many.

Prohibiting the creation of offices and fixing the salaries by the executive department.

Cut out graft and make taxes lower by economizing instead of devising schemes for raising more revenue.

Democracy stands for equal rights to all and special privileges to none.
Therefore each citizen should bear his just share of the burden of government by paying taxes according to his ability, and no citizen should be exempt from his share of this burden.

When a man aspires to so great an honor as that of chief executive of a great state, he owes it to the people to declare himself on all public questions. A condition was imposed on Oklahoma in the enabling act never before imposed on any other state, to-wit: that before the president should proclaim Oklahoma a state there must have been written in the constitution a provision prohibiting the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors on the Indian Territory side for a period of twenty-one years.

It has been asserted that those who were responsible for placing this provision in the enabling act did so with a view to coercing fair minded men to vote for state wide prohibition and many of our citizens voted for it believing it unfair to bring the state in half wet and half dry.

I therefore think that this question should again be submitted to the people of the whole state that they may vote unbiased by the thought that one-half of the state must have prohibition.

Yours very truly,
LESLIE P. ROSS.

CAMPBELL RUSSELL CONTINUES TO OPPOSE ALL OTHER STATE CAPITAL AMBITIONS

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Senator Campbell Russell, promoter of the New Jerusalem State capital idea, is here and announces that he will take the stump against the initiated Oklahoma City state capital bill, an election upon which the governor has called for June 11.

"I have not lost confidence in the people of Oklahoma," said the senator. "The voter only has to be shown the inside of that bill and what he will do to it is apparent. The date has been well selected, June 11, when the farmer in Northern Oklahoma will be busy harvesting his grain, while further south they will be devoting twelve hours a day to the cotton crop. But in spite of all that we will beat it in a way they won't soon forget."

Senator Russell says the proposed appropriation of $600,000 can be paid by the State Capital Commission for one acre of ground and nothing in the bill will prevent it. When the New Jerusalem proposition was submitted to a vote of the people two years ago, sixty-eight counties gave it a majority of over 42,000.

GEORGE A. HENSHAW ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR THE OFFICE OF STATE CORPORATION COMMISSIONER

An Able and Splendid Democrat. Especially Fitted for the Incumbency of the Office to Which His Friends Aspire for Him

Oklahoma:

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the nomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of Corporation Commissioner of the State of Oklahoma.

I was born and reared on a farm near Stone Fort in the southern part of Illinois. My father was from East Tennessee; my mother from Alabama.
I taught school five years and in 1894 graduated from the Northern Indiana Law school, since which time I have been engaged in the practice of law. I came to Oklahoma ten years ago, and located at Madill. I was a member of the constitutional convention and at the close of the convention, the farmer delegates passed a resolution and appointed a committee to ask me to run for the office of Corporation Commissioner at that time. On my way to Oklahoma City to make my announcement for this office, I learned that an injunction was issued by the federal court enjoining the issue of the proclamation to hold the election. Being a member of the convention's legal advisory committee I immediately upon my arrival at Oklahoma City, got together a few of the delegates, as a result of which, a committee was sent to Washington. Instead of announcing for the office, I devoted my time with the legal advisory committee in assisting in dissolving the injunction before the Supreme Court of Oklahoma Territory.

By the effective work of the Committee that went to Washington and the action of the Constitutional convention, upon the suggestions of the committee, statehood was made a certainty.

Upon the advent of statehood, I was appointed assistant attorney general and assigned to look after all legal matters coming before the corporation commission, and have devoted my time almost exclusively to this class of work and litigation in the supreme and federal courts and before the interstate commerce commission, growing out of public service regulation, rates and charges.

Since the two cent fare and the rates prescribed by the Commission were enjoined, the greater portion of my time has been devoted to getting up evidence and assisting in preparation of and presenting these cases to the courts. These cases are still pending, and with the showing that we are able to make, I have full confidence that Oklahoma will ultimately secure a fair and proper adjustment and reasonable rates and the two cent fare will be restored.

Upon entering the campaign for this office I will tender my resignation as assistant attorney general, but upon the request of the attorney general and the corporation commission, will devote all the time that is necessary to the two cent fare and freight rate litigation even though it takes my entire time out of the campaign. In that event I will necessarily have to depend upon those who are in sympathy with maintaining reasonable freight rates and the two cent passenger fare in the state of Oklahoma to look after my interest that I may assist in carrying this litigation to a successful end.

If elected, I will do just as I did in the constitutional convention; as I have done in my work before the commission and other public engagements in which I have participated—that is I will serve the people to the very best of my ability.

Respectfully Submitted,
GEO. A. HENSHAW.

There will be a called meeting at the school building Friday April 8th. All members requested to be present.

BEVERAGE IN CONTEST FOR POLITICAL POSITION

IF HIS STATE ENDORSES TARIFF BILL WHICH HE OPPOSED, EMBARRASSMENT WILL RESULT.

Indianapolis, April 4.—If the friends of United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge have their way in the republican convention which will name a state ticket here Tuesday, no mention in the platform will be made of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law or of county local option law, two questions that have caused party leaders deep concern during the last several days.

In view of the fact that Senator Beveridge voted against the tariff measure, his friends are determined that the convention shall not indorse it. While there is a considerable sentiment among the delegates for an indorsement of the tariff law, there was a disposition tonight on the part of the stand pat republicans not to make a fight on the floor of the convention against the report of the committee on resolutions which undoubtedly will contain no mention of the measure.

There is a strong element demanding that the local option law, which was passed by the republicans at a special session of the legislature shall be indorsed, but it is the plan of the friends of Senator Beveridge, who will undoubtedly be in control of the convention, to make no mention of it.

MISSION FOR ROOSEVELT.

Preacher Would Have Him Be Ambassador Extraordinary in Interests of Perpetual Peace.

New York, April 4.—"I nominate Theodore Roosevelt for the high office of Ambassador Extraordinary to all the courts of the world in the interests of universal and perpetual peace," said Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, in the course of an address to his current events class at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday.

"I believe," he said in conclusion, "that I have today spoken words which will ring from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and which will echo beyond the seas."

Mr. McArthur chose for his subject the question, "What Shall We Do With Theodore Roosevelt?" In answering his own inquiry, he said:

"Perhaps some people would prefer to put the question in this form, 'What will he do with us?' He is a unique man. His powers are manifold and symmetrical to a remarkable degree. He is a practical politician, an experienced statesman, a recognized literature, a mighty hunter and a great preacher, and a score of other remarkable things. What shall we do with such a man? How can his talent be best employed for the honor of the country and the good of mankind?"

"There can be no more exalted mission than the one I have named. Only those familiar with the facts know how many international disputes have already been settled by arbitration. Here we have a noble sphere for the varied experience of Col. Roosevelt. No one will ever accuse him of mollycoddle. He is as brave morally as he is physically and he has the ear of the civilized world in places high and low as no man ever had.

NEW LAW SWELLS REVENUES.

National Banks Pay State Fees to Become Reserve Agents.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Bank Commissioner A. M. Young today made his quarterly settlement with State Treasurer James A. Manefee, treasurer of the state banking board, turning over to him $6,845 in fees collected by the bank commissioner's office for the examination of state and national banks during the last three months. The fact that national banks which desire to be approved by the state bank examiners has added materially to the revenues of that office.

More About Robbery.

McAlester, Ok., April 4.—Shortly after last midnight burglars blew the safe in the Bank of Stuart, at Stuart, twenty miles west of here, secured $1,600 and escaped on a handcar, traveling fifteen miles in this direction and abandoning the handcar, were trailed nearly into McAlester. A special locomotive took officers from this city.

The safe was ruined and the entire front of the building wrecked. The robbers cut all the telegraph and telephone wires at Stuart.

The Town Marshal exchanged shots with the robbers as they were putting the handcar on the track.

BAILEY AND CALDWELL BEFORE SUPREME COURT

TRYING TO SECURE RELIEF FOR OKLAHOMA FROM U. S. SUPREME COURT AGAINST STATE FEDERAL JUDICIARY.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—The supreme court Monday heard arguments on an application for writs of prohibition to restrain Federal Judges Campbell and Cotterell of Oklahoma from issuing injunctions against the enforcement of the prohibition laws of that state. The application was filed on behalf of the state of Oklahoma by Senator Bailey and F. C. Caldwell, the prohibition enforcement attorney. It sets forth that the effect of injunctions is to prohibit the state from invoking the power of its own courts for the purpose of judicially determining the status of liquor brought into Oklahoma through interstate commerce prior to the time that the police power applies as provided by the Wilson act.

The argument was opened by Mr. Caldwell who contended that the injunction proceedings before the federal judges were intended to control the official conduct of certain state officers and are therefore in effect suits against the state in violation of the eleventh amendment to the constitution.

Lawrence Maxwell, of Cincinnati, representing the National Liquor Dealers association, began his argument a few minutes before the court adjourned for the day and will resume Tuesday. He argued that the shippers of liquor have sought relief on the injunction suits against interference of interstate commerce in course of transit.

The hearing will close Tuesday on behalf of Oklahoma with an argument by Senator Bailey. If successful it will be the second writ of prohibition ever issued in the history of the supreme court of the United States.

ABERNATHY SEEKS DIVORCE SUIT BROUGHT IN LAWTON

Youthful Bride of United States Marshal Said to Have Deserted Him.

Guthrie, April 5.—United States Marshal John Abernathy, feared by bank robbers, cattle thieves and wolves as much as he is admired by former President Roosevelt, is about to, or already has, instituted divorce against his wife, according to the most reliable information obtainable here last night. The grounds alleged are desertion and neglect of duty. It was reported that the suit would be filed in Lawton last night, or today.

Mrs. Abernathy was formerly Miss Almira Purviance, daughter of a wealthy Logan county farmer. She married the marshal, then a widower, with seven children, about two years ago, against the protests of her father. The latter's objections were based upon the fact of Marshal Abernathy's former marriage and six children, whose care she would have to assume, and her own youth, she being then less than twenty years of age. One child was born of their union some weeks ago, a girl.

Mrs. Abernathy is now at the home of her father, J. A. Purviance.

Corporation Commission Issues Order Involving Ocheleta Company.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The corporation commission today issued an order requiring the Ocheleta water company to maintain its plant in such shape as to furnish sufficient water for both public and private use including fire protection.

The company has the franchise for both gas and water and was given the gas franchise only on condition that it also maintain a water plant. The company claims that it is not making money on the water plant but the commission holds that so long as it accepted its franchise it must maintain its water plant.

CLAIM LAW IS INVALID.

Prisoner's Attorneys Attack Act Passed at Special Session.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The first action calling in question the constitutionality of a law passed by the special session of the legislature was an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed today in the criminal court of appeals for release of a man named Ray from jail at Arapahoe. Ray was sent to jail by order of Judge J. W. Lawler of the superior court of Custer county, created at the special session because of refusal to put up alimony money.

Ray's attorney contend that the act creating the court is unconstitutional because it is local legislation.

WELCOME, HOME, TEDDY!

Well, the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt is back in civilization! Welcome home, Teddy! It gives us pleasure to record your arrival safe, and well and quiet. The country is glad that you have escaped the tsetse fly and the flying, and creeping and bounding things of the African depths. May your tour through Europe be a-a-bully one. And when finally you land again on the shores of this glorious country may many years of health, happiness and continued usefulness spread out before you. Could we wish you more.

If you have had your privations, so have we. If at times, food has been scarce for you, so also has it been for us. While the crack of your rifle has brought the mighty kings of the jungle to their knees, the crack of the Beef Trust's whip has been doing a little business, also, here at

Mr. Roosevelt will not be uniformed. With Cal. O'Loughlin, William H. Curtis, Walter Wellman, Frederick E. Sturdevant and the other noted press correspondents, who greeted him in Kartum, as his companions for the balance of the journey, there is no information in or out of the books he cannot have.

You're a great American citizen, Teddy. And we welcome you home.—National Monthly.

Sulphur, Ok., April 4.—Great excitement prevails here over an oil strike in a well being drilled for artesian water by Mrs. W. B. Womack in the north part of the city. Oil was struck at a depth of 342 feet and rose sixty feet in the well. After a number of barrels had been bailed out the well filled quickly to within ninety feet of the top, then closed down. An expert oil man has been summoned and he will shoot the well Monday.

Oil men are flocking to Sulphur, many coming in on tonight's trains, and they are agreed that the oil from the Womack well is free from sand and of a superior quality. And their general opinion is that the well will prove a producer equal to the average in the Kiefer field. The Sulphur Light and Power Company, which uses the fuel oil from the Kiefer field fired their plant today with oil from the Womack well, and the manager claims the oil tests 30 per cent better for fuel than the Kiefer product.

The report of state and United States geologists indicates that an extensive oil field lies north of the city, and much of the land has been covered with leases. Several attempts have been made and thousands of dollars spent in trying to locate the oil, but wells sunk heretofore have been in the artesian water belt. The flow and pressure of the water has been so great that it could not be cased off, causing the wells to be abandoned. The hotels are full of strangers attracted to Sulphur by the excitement, and are awaiting the shooting of the well Monday.

ENGLISH LORDS TO SEE PRIZE FIGHT

British Noblemen Agog Over the Lord Roseberry Special for the Big Match.

London, April 4.—While England has some rather strenuous political questions to solve, parliament is a bit more interested in the question of who will get a ticket to Lord Roseberry's special party to visit the Jeffries-Johnson fight in the United States. Already half a dozen lords have been invited and have agreed to join in the tour of the United States. Within the next fortnight the list of the party will be completed. For various reasons Lord Roseberry calls his party a junket to Canada and the states, but San Francisco and July 4 are the real important point and date of the trip. Englishmen like a fight, and Lord Roseberry is a hero among his fellow lords, in suggesting the idea of making the trip. The party will leave England in May and after visiting Canada will go to New York and then in a special train slowly make their way westward to San Francisco, arriving in time to witness the big fight. Five cars will make up the special train. The party will be limited to twenty-five members of the nobility, but a corps of secretaries and valets will be taken along. The English consul in San Francisco has engaged ring-side seats for the party.

Punch.

A novelty for whist or social parties where a beverage is served: Strip, wash and bruise with potato masher enough mint to lightly fill a quart bowl. Cover with boiling water and steep, like any tea, for 10 minutes. Strain well and chill on ice. When cold add a cup of grape juice and one of raspberry or strawberry. Canned fruit may be used. Barberry juice is good, but not so easily obtained. Make a syrup of white sugar and water, boiled for 10 minutes, and sweeten with this to suit taste. Do not use raw sugar. If no fruit can be obtained or for any reason is not preferred, use lemon or orange or pineapple juice. Any way the punch looks nicer if a few slices of lemon float around in it. Add also a few sprigs of mint. The flavor is not pronounced and is agreeable.

Frosting the Cake.

For a delicious white frosting for a cake take one cup of granulated sugar, four tablespoons of cold water, and one tablespoon of vinegar. Boil for about five minutes, or until it forms a thread when dropped from a spoon. Have ready the whites of two or three eggs whipped to a stiff froth. Add the sugar syrup to the whites of eggs and beat vigorously until it is light and creamy.

Spread thickly on the cake and set aside to harden. It is not necessary to put in the oven to harden.

A Jelly for Invalids.

Has it ever occurred to you to jelly fruits in the smallest possible glasses for the invalid friend? Glasses may be had which will hold but a quarter of the jelly usually put into the ordinary tumbler size.

While you may not want to carry to your friend just one of these tiny playthings, the variety that you could take in four of the little glasses would be novel and so much more acceptable to the delicate appetite than a quantity of one kind.

Cranberry Sherbet.

Instead of cranberry sauce or jelly try a cranberry sherbet with the roast. A pint of water and a pound of sugar to each pint of juice should be frozen in the usual manner; when partly done stir in the whipped white of one egg for each pint of juice, finish freezing, then add a cup of chopped crystallized fruit softened by previous soaking, repack the freezer and let stand for an hour to ripen.

Honeycomb Pudding.

Beat two eggs, add one-half cup sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup milk in which dissolve one-half teaspoon soda, one-half cup flour. Pour into pudding dish and bake in moderate oven 45 minutes.

Sauce: One cup sugar, one cup boiling water, butter size small egg, salt, one tablespoon flour dissolved in three tablespoons cold water, one-half teaspoon lemon extract.

Soft Chocolate Frosting. One-half cup sugar, two-thirds cup of water, two squares chocolate grated, piece of butter size of walnut. Boil all together, add one tablespoon of cornstarch dissolved in water. Cook till it thickens. Stir in the beaten white of an egg and beat for two minutes. Add one teaspoon vanilla.

Holy Father, the Pope, Bitterly Criticized on Account of Vatican Incident—Royal Dinner Enriches Day.

Rome, April 4.—Twice today Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. The king received the president at an early hour at the Quirinal with particular warmth and they talked together for nearly an hour. This evening there was a grand dinner at the palace given by the king and queen in honor of Col.
Roosevelt and his family. Great preparations have been going on for this event and the queen herself directed all the arrangements. It was that no detail should be neglected.

In all Mr. Roosevelt's stay in Italy was a most interesting one. At the king he visited the Pontine where he was the object of a popular installation. He dined with Ambrosio, the Italian and a very old friend of his in the city.

Tomorrow will be less busy. In the morning he will have with him the king and will probably spend the afternoon sightseeing. He will be the guest of the British Ambassador at dinner in the evening.

Popular Interest Aroused
The Vatican incident which has aroused considerable public interest in the newspapers had made Mr.
Roosevelt the object of intense popular interest and a crowd is constantly before the hotel where he is staying, waiting a chance to get a glimpse of him.

The ex-president and his party arrived at the entrance of the Quirinal Palace at 3 P. M. where the door of his entry was opened by the imposing figure of the royal doctor, a magnificent in scarlet liver with sword and baton and cool but smilingly right out of the middle ages. At the foot of the grand staircase Count Graziosi and Duke Citomostis of the monarch and Count Cassanese, gentlemen in waiting to Queen Helena and a relative of the monarch, of foreign affairs met the party and sent them up the steps which were decorated with palms and flowing shrubs.

Greeted by Sovereigns
In the great hall they were received by Count Graziosi, port of the palace, whose wife was Miss Kinn of New York, and by Count Cas-sianese. They in waiting to the queen who took them through the great hallroom to a reception room with purple tapestries where the architect of the palace was surrounded by their military and civil honorables.

After a short conversation all the guests who included the American Ambassador and Mrs. Lushman and the staff of the embassy adjourned to the private dining room of the king, a spacious hall hung with modern tapestries and decorated with immense plants and flowers. The dining room was enlivened by the military band in the gardens below.

The queen had at her right Col.
Roosevelt, then Princess Helena of Serbia, Major J. F. Landis, military aide of the American embassy, Count Cassanese, John W. Garrett, first secretary, Princess Paterno, Kermit Roosevelt and Count Tozzoni.
At her left sat Ambassador Lushman, Princess Vira of Montenegro, Commander Andrew T. Long, naval attache, the Duchess Graziosi-Lante, C. S. Wilson, second secretary and Count Cassanese.

At the right of the king sat Mrs.
Roosevelt, the Marquis Di San Giuliano, the foreign minister, Mrs. Landis, Gen. Brusato, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Count Brambilla and Duke Citocommander of the royal Guitrassiers.
At the left of His Majesty were Mrs.
Lushman, Count Graziosi, Mrs. Garrett, Count Mattioli, Minister of the Royal household and Princess Vivaro.

COL. LESLIE P. ROSS, OF LAWTON, ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR

Lawton, Okla., April 2, 1910.

To the Voters of the State of Oklahoma:
For some time past I have been
urged by friends to enter the race
for governor, but have declined to
of the present candidates, or some
the greatest danger now confronting our people, to-wit: The growing power of the chief executive of the state.
A power that is leading us away
from democracy and on to autocracy
at a very rapid pace.

With the power of appointment to
office, the power of veto, and the power of pardon, the governor of Oklahoma can pass or defeat any measure proposed, thus practically destroying the legislative department of government.

He can do more. He may violate
fund from the purpose sacredly set
veto laws and to pardon criminals he can defy any attempt even to investigate his conduct, much less to impeach him.

There are in Oklahoma twenty-
seven state institutions; and their combined representation in the lower house of the legislature is fifty-one out of a total of one hundred and
nine members. Each representative
cure a liberal appropriation for his institution. Suppose the governor should want to force the passage of a pet measure or thwart an investigation; he would send for a repre-
institutions are located and say to
him that unless he cared to assume
the responsibility of stopping his
must vote for the measure; and in
nine cases out of ten the representa-
coercion the governor would only
majority of the representatives. Can
he get the four? Yes. How? Buy them.
With money? Oh, no! With patronage.
He would send for a representative
and inquire if he has a friend or
good warden of one of the penitentiaries, for instance. Of course he
has. So he gets the appointment and
would "line up" enough to secure a
four good appointments, they are innumerable.

Or suppose a lawyer member of the legislature has a rich client in
the penitentiary. He would be sent for and asked as to mitigating circumstances in his client's case. Certainly there would be mitigating circumstances sufficient to justify a pardon. He would secure his client's pardon and a thousand or two more
of his client's money, the governor would get his vote for the "pet measure" and the people would get
"hades."

If we prefer democracy to autocracy this power must be stopped and
stopped now. Let us take the power of appointment away from the governor and elect all officers by direct
power away from the governor and
place it in a board of three members
a crime for the governor to coerce legislation by a threat to veto a bill, and amend the constitution so
that the people may have the right
to recall an officer.

Democracy means individual liberty
and the rule of the people. Autocracy
means graft, high taxes, evasion and
violation of the constitution and the
dictation of an autocrat.

Democracy would disseminate power among the people. Autocracy
one man.

I am a democrat and despise the
autocrat under whatever name he
travels.

I am persuaded that this autocratic power in the governor can never
elected governor who favors its destruction. The sooner its destruction is attempted the easier it will
be. The sooner it is destroyed the
and the people.

I, therefore, am a candidate for
action of the democratic party at the primary election on August 2.

If elected I will favor the election
people.

Taking the power of pardon away
from the governor and vesting it in
a board of three members elected by the people.

Making it a crime for the governor to coerce legislation.

Making it a felony for an official
to divert the public fund from the purpose for which it was appropriated.

Requiring the state treasurer to
give bond in a sum not less than a
placed in the state treasury and de-
counties of the state, provided that
no bank shall have more state money at a time than the amount of its capital stock.

The protection of the bank guar-
an officer to misappropriate it.

The abolishment of all needless of-
entirely too many.

Prohibiting the creation of offices
and fixing the salaries by the executive department.

Cut out graft and make taxes lower by economizing instead of devis-
nue.

Democracy stands for equal rights
to all and special privileges to none.
Therefore each citizen should bear
his just share of the burden of government by paying taxes according
be exempt from his share of this
burden.

honor as that of chief executive of a great state, he owes it to the people to declare himself on all public ques-
Oklahoma in the enabling act never
before imposed on any other state,
to-wit: that before the president should proclaim Oklahoma a state
there must have been written in the constitution a provision prohibiting
the manufacture or sale of intoxicat-
side for a period of twenty-one years.
It has been asserted that those who
were responsible for placing this
provision in the enabling act did so
with a view to coercing fair minded
men to vote for state wide prohibition
and many of our citizens voted for it believing it unfair to bring the state
in half wet and half dry.

I therefore think that this question should again be submitted to the people of the whole state that they may vote unbiased by the
thought that one-half of the state
must have prohibition.

Yours very truly,
LESLIE P. ROSS.

CAMPBELL RUSSELL CONTINUES TO OPPOSE ALL OTHER STATE CAPITAL AMBITIONS

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Senator
Campbell Russell, promoter of the New Jerusalem State capital idea, is
here and announces that he will take
the stump against the initiated Oklahoma City state capital bill, an election upon which the governor has called for June 11.

"I have not lost confidence in the people of Oklahoma," said the senator. "The voter only has to be shown the inside of that bill and what he
has been well selected, June 11,
when the farmer in Northern Okla-

be devoting twelve hours a day to
the cotton crop. But in spite of all
won't soon forget."

appropriation of $600,000 can be paid by the State Capital Commission for
the bill will prevent it. When the New Jerusalem proposition was submitted to a vote of the people two years ago, sixty-eight counties gave
it a majority of over 42,000.

Tulsa Will Also Prohibit Low-Ranging Awnings Over Sidewalks.
Tulsa, Ok., April 4.—The Commercial Club has started a crusade against signs, bulletins and awnings

Recently the city was defeated in a suit for damages in which the plaintiff was injured by a falling sign.
The city building inspector will be urged to clear the business section of such encumbrances.

An Able and Splendid Democrat. Especially Fitted for the Incumbency of the Office to Which His Friends Aspire for Him

Oklahoma:

I take this means of announcing
my candidacy for the nomination on
the Democratic ticket for the office
State of Oklahoma.

I was born and reared on a farm near Stone Fort in the southern part of Illinois. My father was from East Tennessee; my mother from Alabama.
I taught school five years and in 1894 graduated from the Northern Indiana Law School, since which time
I have been engaged in the practice of law. I came to Oklahoma ten years ago, and located at Madill. I
was a member of the constitutional convention and at the close of the convention, the farmer delegates
passed a resolution and appointed a committee to ask me to run for the office of Corporation Commissioner
at that time. On my way to Oklahoma City to make my announcement
for this office, I learned that an injunction was issued by the federal court enjoining the issue of the proclamation to hold the election. Being a member of the convention's legislative advisory committee I immediately upon my arrival at Oklahoma City, got together a few of the delegates,
as a result of which, a committee was sent to Washington. Instead of an-
time with the legal advisory committee in assisting in dissolving the injunction before the Supreme Court of Oklahoma Territory.

By the effective work of the Committee that went to Washington and
the action of the Constitutional convention, upon the suggestions of the committee, statehood was made a certainty.

Upon the advent of statehood, I
was appointed assistant attorney general and assigned to look after all
legal matters coming before the corporation commission, and have de-
this class of work and litigation in
the supreme and federal courts and
before the interstate commerce commission, growing out of public service regulation, rates and charges.
Since the two cent fare and the rates
prescribed by the Commission were enjoined, the greater portion of my
of and presenting these cases to the courts. These cases are still pending, and with the showing that we are able to make, I have full confidence that Oklahoma will ultimately secure a fair and proper adjustment
and reasonable rates and the two

Upon entering the campaign for
this office I will tender my resignation as assistant attorney general,
but upon the request of the attorney general and the corporation commissioner, will devote all the time that is necessary to the two cent fare and freight rate litigation even though it takes my entire time out of the campaign. In that event I will necessarily have to depend upon those
ing reasonable freight rates and the
two cent passenger fare in the state
of Oklahoma to look after my interest that I may assist in carrying this
litigation to a successful end.

I have done in my work before the
commission and other public engagements in which I have participated—
that is I will serve the people to the very best of my ability.

Respectfully Submitted,
GEO. A. HENSHAW.

In the cases of the state vs. Jno. Blocker and J. B. Rich, charged with cruelty to animals, each were found guilty and fined $5.00 and cost.

Sidney Lane charged with pointing weapon at Dr. Cox was acquitted.

Most of today has been consumed in the trial of Joe Lancaster charged with selling liquor. The case was hard fought on both sides. This case is in the hands of the jury as we go to press.

Sorosis Notes.

Sorosis held its regular session at the South school Friday afternoon.

This being April 1st, the following program was carried out:

Response—Lines from the Poets of Shakespeare.

Leader, Mrs. Barton.

Paper—"Child Rowland to the Dark Tower Came"—Mrs. McKee.

Character sketch of King Lear—Miss Johnson.

The paper by Mrs. McKee was excellent, and proved she had given it careful thought.

The sketch by Miss Johnson was fine. She left "no stone unturned" that could in any way tell of Lear's character.

As usual when Sorosis meets, it was a late hour when the good-byes were said.

There will be a called meeting at the school building Friday April 8th. All members requested to be present.

To Draw Jury.

Muskogee, Ok., April 4.—Judge Ralph E. Campbell of the federal court left this afternoon for Tulsa, where he will order the jury commissioners to draw the jury at 2 o'clock for the Muskogee men in the Muskogee town lot cases.

The jury will be drawn publicly and the name of each juror publicly announced to comply with the provisions of the statute relating to such procedure.

IF HIS STATE ENDORSES TARIFF BILL WHICH HE OPPOSED, EMBARRASSMENT WILL RESULT.

Indianapolis, April 4.—If the friends of United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge have their way in the republican convention which will name a state ticket here Tuesday, no mention in the platform will be made of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law or of county local option law, two questions that have caused party leaders deep concern during the last several days.

In view of the fact that Senator Beveridge voted against the tariff measure, his friends are determined that the convention shall not endorse it. While there is a considerable sentiment among the delegates for an endorsement of the tariff law, there was a disposition tonight on the part of the stand pat republicans not to make a fight on the floor of the convention against the report of the committee on resolutions which undoubtedly will contain no mention of the measure.

There is a strong element demanding that the local option law, which was passed by the republicans at a special session of the legislature shall be endorsed, but it is the plan of the friends of Senator Beveridge, who will undoubtedly be in control of the convention, to make no mention of it.

MISSION FOR ROOSEVELT.

Preacher Would Have Him Be Ambassador Extraordinary in Interests of Perpetual Peace.

New York, April 4.—"I nominate Theodore Roosevelt for the high office of Ambassador Extraordinary to all the courts of the world in the interests of universal and perpetual peace," said Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, in the course of an address to his current events class at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday.

"I believe," he said in conclusion, "that I have today spoken words which will ring from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and which will echo beyond the seas."

Mr. McArthur chose for his subject the question, "What Shall We Do With Theodore Roosevelt?" In answering his own inquiry, he said:

"Perhaps some people would prefer to put the question in this form, 'What will he do with us?' He is a unique man. His powers are manifold and symmetrical to a remarkable degree. He is a practical politician, an experienced statesman, a recognized literature, a mighty hunter and a great preacher, and a score of other remarkable things. What shall we do with such a man? How can his talent be best employed to the honor of the country and the good of mankind?"

"There can be no more exalted mission than the one I have named. Only those familiar with the facts know how many international disputes have already been settled by arbitration. Here we have a noble sphere for the varied experience of Col. Roosevelt. No one will ever accuse him of mollycoddle. He is as brave morally as he is physically and he has the ear of the civilized world in places high and low as no man ever had."

NEW LAW SWELLS REVENUES.

National Banks Pay State Fees to Become Reserve Agents.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Bank Commissioner A. M. Young today made his quarterly settlement with State Treasurer James A. Manefee, treasurer of the state banking board, turning over to him $6,845 in fees collected by the bank commissioner's office for the examination of state and national banks during the last three months. The fact that national banks which desire to be approved by the state bank examiners has added materially to the revenues of that office.

More About Robbery.

McAlester, Ok., April 4.—Shortly after last midnight burglars blew the safe in the Bank of Stuart, at Stuart, twenty miles west of here, secured $1,600 and escaped on a handcar, traveling fifteen miles in this direction and abandoning the handcar. The robbers were trailed nearly into McAlester. A special locomotive took officers from this city.

The safe was ruined and the entire front of the building wrecked. The robbers cut all the telegraph and telephone wires at Stuart.

BAILEY AND CALDWELL BEFORE SUPREME COURT

OKLAHOMA FROM U. S. SUPREME COURT AGAINST STATE FEDERAL JUDICIARY.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—The supreme court Monday heard arguments on an application for writs of prohibition to restrain Federal Judges Campbell and Cottrell of Oklahoma from issuing injunctions against the enforcement of the prohibition laws of that state. The application was filed on behalf of the state of Oklahoma by Senator Bailey and F. C. Caldwell, the prohibition enforcement attorney. It sets forth that the effect of injunctions is to prohibit the state from invoking the power of its own courts for the purpose of judicially determining the status of liquor brought into Oklahoma through interstate commerce prior to the time that the police power applies as provided by the Wilson act.

The argument was opened by Mr. Caldwell who contended that the injunction proceedings before the federal judges were intended to control the official conduct of certain state officers and are therefore in effect suits against the state in violation of the eleventh amendment to the constitution.

Lawrence Maxwell, of Cincinnati, representing the National Liquor Dealers association, began his argument a few minutes before the court adjourned for the day and will resume Tuesday. He argued that the shippers of liquor have sought relief on the injunction suits against interference of interstate commerce in course of transit.

The hearing will close Tuesday on behalf of Oklahoma with an argument by Senator Bailey. If successful it will be the second writ of prohibition ever issued in the history of the supreme court of the United States.

ABERNATHY SEEKS DIVORCE SUIT BROUGHT IN LAWTON

Youthful Bride of United States Marshal Said to Have Deserted Him.

Guthrie, April 5.—United States Marshal John Abernathy, feared by bank robbers, cattle thieves and wolves as much as he is admired by former President Roosevelt, is about to, or already has, instituted divorce against his wife, according to the most reliable information obtainable here last night. The grounds alleged are desertion and neglect of duty. It was reported that the suit would be filed in Lawton last night, or today.

Mrs. Abernathy was formerly Miss Alma Purviance, daughter of a wealthy Logan county farmer. She married the marshal, then a widower, with seven children, about two years ago, against the protests of her father. The latter's objections were based upon the fact of Marshal Abernathy's former marriage and six children whose care she would have to assume, and her own youth, she being then less than twenty years of age. One child was born of their union some weeks ago, a girl.

Mrs. Abernathy is now at the home of her father, J. A. Purviance.

Corporation Commission Issues Order Involving Ochelata Company.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The corporation commission today issued an order requiring the Ochelata water company to maintain its plant in such shape as to furnish sufficient water for both public and private use including fire protection.

The company has the franchise for both gas and water and was given the gas franchise only on condition that it also maintain a water plant. The company claims that it is not making money on the water plant but the commission holds that so long as it accepted its franchise it must maintain its water plant.

CLAIM LAW IS INVALID.

Prisoner's Attorneys Attack Act Passed at Special Session.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The first action calling in question the constitutionality of a law passed by the special session of the legislature was an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed today in the criminal court of appeals for release of a man named Ray from jail at Arapaho. Ray was sent to jail by order of Judge J. W. Lawler of the superior court of Custer county, created at the special session because of refusal to put up alimony money.

Ray's attorney contended that the act creating the court is unconstitutional because it is local legislation.

WELCOME HOME, TEDDY!

Well, the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt is back in civilization! Welcome home, Teddy! It gives us pleasure to record your arrival safe, and well and quiet. The country is glad that you have escaped the tsetse fly and the flying, and creeping and bounding things of the African depths. May your tour through Europe be a-a-bully one. And when finally you land again on the shores of this glorious country may many years of health, happiness and continued usefulness spread out before you. Could we wish you more.

If you have had your privations, so have we. If at times, food has been scarce for you, so also has it been for us. While the crack of your rifle has brought the mighty kings of the jungle to their knees, the crack of the Beef Trust's whip has been doing a little business, also, here at

As for your policies, they have been faithfully carried out by Mr. Cannon and Mr. Aldrich. Where they carried them to we cannot say, for they have not been seen since your boat sailed. Mr. Foraker is up in Ohio still—very still. You will, probably, remember Foraker. Anyway, he's remember you. And Bellamy—But Mr. Taft understands now why you always fought shy of the tariff. Pinchot has a great deal to tell you. And there's h—I to pay with the machine in New York state.

Mr. Roosevelt will not be uniformed. With Cal. O'Loughlin, William H. Curtiss, Walter Wellman, Frederick E. Sturdevant and the other noted press correspondents, who greeted him in Kartum, as his companions for the balance of the journey, there is no information in or out of the books he cannot have.

DRILLED FOR WATER,
OIL IS DISCOVERED

Sulphur Product, Tested for Fuel, Shows Strong Combustive Qualities and Attracts Producers.

Sulphur, Ok., April 4.—Great excitement prevails here over an oil strike in a well being drilled for artesian water by Mrs. W. B. Womack in the north part of the city. Oil was struck at a depth of 342 feet and rose sixty feet in the well. After a number of barrels had been bailed out the well filled quickly to within ninety feet of the top, then closed down. An expert oil man has been summoned and he will shoot the well Monday.

Oil men are flocking to Sulphur, many coming in on tonight's trains, and they are agreed that the oil from the Womack well is free from sand and of a superior quality. And their general opinion is that the well will prove a producer equal to the average in the Kiefer field. The Sulphur Light and Power Company, which uses the fuel oil from the Kiefer field fired their plant today with oil from the Womack well, and the manager claims the oil tests 30 per cent better for fuel than the Kiefer product.

The report of state and United States geologists indicates that an extensive oil field lies north of the city, and much of the land has been covered with leases. Several attempts have been made and thousands of dollars spent in trying to locate the oil, but wells sunk heretofore have been in the artesian water belt. The flow and pressure of the water has been so great that it could not be raised off, causing the wells to be abandoned. The hotels are full of strangers attracted to Sulphur by the excitement, and are awaiting the shooting of the well Monday.

ENGLISH LORDS TO

SEE PRIZE FIGHT

British Noblemen Agog Over the Lord Roseberry Special for the Big Match.

London, April 4.—While England has some rather strenuous political questions to solve, parliament is a bit more interested in the question of who will get a ticket to Lord Roseberry's special party to visit the Jeffries-Johnson fight in the United States. Already half a dozen lords have been invited and have agreed to join in the tour of the United States. Within the next fortnight the list of the party will be completed. For various reasons Lord Roseberry calls his party a junket to Canada and the states, but San Francisco and July 4 are the real important point and date of the trip. Englishmen like a fight, and Lord Roseberry is a hero among his fellow lords, in suggesting the idea of making the trip. The party will leave England in May and after visiting Canada will go to New York and then in a special train slowly make their way westward to San Francisco, arriving in time to witness the big fight. Five cars will make up the special train. The party will be limited to twenty-five members of the nobility, but a corps of secretaries and valets will be taken along. The English consul in San Francisco has engaged ring-side seats for the party.

Punch.

A novelty for whilst or social parties where a beverage is served: Strip, wash and bruise with potato masher enough mint to lightly fill a quart bowl. Cover with boiling water and steep, like any tea, for 10 minutes. Strain well and chill on ice. When cold add a cup of grape juice and one of raspberry or strawberry. Canned fruit may be used. Barberry juice is good, but not so easily obtained. Make a syrup of white sugar and water, boiled for 10 minutes, and sweeten with this to suit taste. Do not use raw sugar. If no fruit can be obtained or for any reason is not preferred, use lemon or orange or pineapple juice. Any way the punch looks nicer if a few slices of lemon float around in it. Add also a few sprigs of mint. The flavor is not pronounced and is agreeable.

Frosting the Cake.

For a delicious white frosting for a cake take one cup of granulated sugar, four tablespoons of cold water, and one tablespoon of vinegar. Boil for about five minutes, or until it forms a thread when dropped from a spoon. Have ready the whites of two or three eggs whipped to a stiff froth. Add the sugar syrup to the whites of eggs and beat vigorously until it is light and creamy.

Spread thickly on the cake and set aside to harden. It is not necessary to put in the oven to harden.

A Jelly for Invalids.

Has it ever occurred to you to jelly fruits in the smallest possible glasses for the invalid friend? Glasses may be had which will hold but a quarter of the jelly usually put into the ordinary tumbler size.

While you may not want to carry to your friend just one of these tiny playthings, the variety that you could take in four of the little glasses would be novel and so much more acceptable to the delicate appetite than a quantity of one kind.

Cranberry Cheesecake.

Instead of cranberry sauce or jelly try a cranberry slice with the roast. A pint of water and a pound of sugar to each pint of juice should be frozen in the usual manner, upon partly done stir in the white of one egg for each pint of juice, finish freezing, then add a cup of chopped crystallized fruit softened by previous soaking, repack the freezer and let stand for an hour to ripen.

Honeycomb Pudding.

Beat two eggs, add one-half cup sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup milk in which dissolve one-half teaspoon soda, one-half cup flour. Pour into pudding dish and bake in moderate oven 45 minutes.

Sauce: One cup sugar, one cup boiling water, butter size small egg, salt, one tablespoon flour dissolved in three tablespoons cold water, one-half teaspoon lemon extract.

Soft Chocolate Frosting.

One-half cup sugar, two-thirds cup of water, two squares chocolate grated, piece of butter size of walnut. Boil all together, add one tablespoon of cornstarch dissolved in water. Cook till it thickens. Stir in the beaten white of an egg and beat for two minutes. Add one teaspoon vanilla.

GUEST OF KING MANUEL

Holy Father, the Pope, Bitterly Criticised on Account of Vatican Incident—Royal Dinner Enriches Day.

Rome, April 4.—Twice today Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. The King received
the president at an early hour at the Quirinal with particular warmth and
they talked together for nearly an
dinner at the palace given by the king and queen in honor of Col.
Roosevelt and his family. Great preparations have been going on for this event and the queen herself directed all the arrangements, dining that no detail should be neglected.

In the morning, Roosevelt will visit the Vatican. After his visit with the king, he visited the Pontine where he was the object of a popular distinction. He dined with Ambasador Tschann and later he had a luncheon with the Italian journalists in the afternoon.
Tomorrow will be a busy day. In the morning, he will pay a visit to the king and will probably spend the
guest of the British Ambassador at dinner in the evening.

Popular Interest Aroused
The Vatican incident which has aroused considerable bitter comment
in the newspapers, had made Mr.
Roosevelt the object of intense popular interest and a crowd is constantly before the hotel where he is staying, waiting a chance to get a glimpse of him.

The ex-president and his party arrived at the entrance of the Quirinal at Palace at 3 P. M. where the door of his carriage was opened by the imposing figure of the royal door-keeper, magnificent in scarlet livery with sword and baton and cool delivered a ringing salute out of the middle ages. At the foot of the grand staircase Count Tschann and Duke Cito-mistis of Romania and Count Cito-mistis of Romania and Count Cito-mistis of Romania were waiting to Queen Helena and a relative of the
monarch of foreign affairs met the party and escorted them up the steps which were decorated with palms and flowering shrubs.

Greeted by Sovereigns
In the great hall they were received by Count Ciano, prefect of the city, whose wife was Miss Kinn-y of New York, and by Count de Cito-mistis. They were waiting to the queen who took them through the great hallway into a reception room with purple and gold tapestries where the sovereigns and their families were waiting for them.

After a short conversation all the
Ambassador and Mrs. Leishman and the staff of the embassy, adjourned
to the private dining room of the king, a spacious hall hung with modern tapestry and decorated with immense plants and flowers. The dinner was enjoyed by the military band in the garden below.

The queen had at her right Col.
Serbia, Major J. F. Landis, military
aide of the American embassy, Countess Guicciardini, John W. Garrett,

At her left sat Ambassador Leishman,

mander Andrew T. Long, naval attache, the Duchess Graciosa-Lante, C. S. Wilson, second secretary and Count Guicciardini.

At the right of the king sat Mrs.
Roosevelt, the Marquis Di San Giuliano, the foreign minister, Mrs. Landis, Gen. Brusato, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Count Brambilla and Duke Cito-mistis of the royal Gualassiers.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR

Lawton, Okla., April 2, 1910.

To the Voters of the State of Oklahoma:

For some time past I have been
urged by friends to enter the race
for governor, but have declined to
of the present candidates, or some
new candidate more able than I to make the race, would run and would
center his fight on what I regard as
the greatest danger now confronting our people, to-wit: The growing power of the chief executive of the state.
A power that is leading us away
from democracy and on to autocracy
at a very rapid pace.

With the power of appointment to
office, the power of veto, and the power of pardon, the governor of Oklahoma can pass or defeat any measure proposed, thus practically destroying the legislative department of government.

He can do more. He may violate or evade the constitution he is sworn
fund from the purpose sacredly set aside for it by law, and through his
power of appointment to office, to
veto laws and to pardon criminals
he can defy any attempt even to investigate his conduct, much less to impeach him.

There are in Oklahoma twenty-
seven state institutions; and their
combined representation in the lower house of the legislature is fifty-
one out of a total of one hundred and
nine members. Each representative
cure a liberal appropriation for his institution. Suppose the governor
should want to force the passage of a
pet measure or thwart an investigation; he would send for a representative (one at a time) from each
institutions are located and say to him that unless he cared to assume
the responsibility of stopping his
must vote for the measure; and in
nine cases out of ten the representa-
coercion the governor would only
majority of the representatives. Can
he get the four? Yes. How? Buy them.
With money? Oh, no! With patronage.
He would send for a representative
and inquire if he has a friend or
good warden of one of the penitentiaries, for instance. Of course he
has. So he gets the appointment and
"lines up." Four good appointments
would "line up" enough to secure a
four good appointments, they are innumerable.

Or suppose a lawyer member of the legislature has a rich client in
the penitentiary. He would be sent for and asked as to mitigating circumstances in his client's case. Certainly there would be mitigating circumstances sufficient to justify a pardon. He would secure his client's pardon and a thousand or two more
of his client's money, the governor would get his vote for the "pet measure" and the people would get
"hades."

If we prefer democracy to autocracy this power must be stopped and stopped now. Let us take the power of appointment away from the governor and elect all officers by direct
vote of the people; take the pardon
power away from the governor and
place it in a board of three members
to be elected by the people. Make it a crime for the governor to coerce legislation by a threat to veto a
bill, and amend the constitution so that the people may have the right
to recall an officer.

Democracy means individual liberty
and the rule of the people. Autocracy
means graft, high taxes, evasion and
violation of the constitution and the
dictation of an autocrat.

Democracy would disseminate power among the people. Autocracy would concentrate it in the hands of
one man.

I am a democrat and despise the
autocrat under whatever name he travels.

I am persuaded that this autocratic power in the governor can never
be taken away until some man is
elected governor who favors its destruction. The sooner its destruction is attempted the easier it will
be. The sooner it is destroyed the
and the people.

I, therefore, am a candidate for governor of Oklahoma subject to the action of the democratic party at the primary election on August 2.

If elected I will favor the election
people.

Taking the power of pardon away
from the governor and vesting it in
a board of three members elected by the people.

Making it a crime for the governor to coerce legislation.

Making it a felony for an official
to divert the public fund from the purpose for which it was appropriated.

Requiring the state treasurer to
give bond in a sum not less than a half million dollars and requiring
that all money of the state shall be placed in the state treasury and deposited in banks throughout the
counties of the state, provided that
no bank shall have more state money at a time than the amount of its capital stock.

The protection of the bank guaranty fund by making it a felony for
an officer to misappropriate it.

The abolishment of all needless of-
entirely too many.

Prohibiting the creation of offices
and fixing the salaries by the executive department.

Cut out graft and make taxes lower by economizing instead of devis-
nue.

Democracy stands for equal rights
to all and special privileges to none.
Therefore each citizen should bear
his just share of the burden of government by paying taxes according
to his ability, and no citizen should
be exempt from his share of this burden.

When a man aspires to so great an honor as that of chief executive of a great state, he owes it to the people to declare himself on all public questions. A condition was imposed on Oklahoma in the enabling act never
before imposed on any other state,
to-wit: that before the president should proclaim Oklahoma a state
there must have been written in the constitution a provision prohibiting
the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors on the Indian Territory
side for a period of twenty-one years.

It has been asserted that those who were responsible for placing this
provision in the enabling act did so
with a view to coercing fair minded
men to vote for state wide prohibition
and many of our citizens voted for it believing it unfair to bring the state
in half wet and half dry.

I therefore think that this question should again be submitted to the people of the whole state that they may vote unbiased by the
thought that one-half of the state must have prohibition.

Yours very truly,
LESLIE P. ROSS.

CAMPBELL RUSSELL CONTINUES TO OPPOSE ALL OTHER STATE CAPITAL AMBITIONS

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Senator
Campbell Russell, promoter of the New Jerusalem State capital idea, is
here and announces that he will take the stump against the initiated Oklahoma City state capital bill, an election upon which the governor has called for June 11.

"I have not lost confidence in the people of Oklahoma," said the senator. "The voter only has to be shown the inside of that bill and what he will do to it is apparent. The date
has been well selected, June 11,
when the farmer in Northern Oklahoma will be busy harvesting his

grain, while further south they will
be devoting twelve hours a day to
the cotton crop. But in spite of all that we will beat it in a way they
won't soon forget."

Senator Russell says the proposed
appropriation of $800,000 can be paid by the State Capital Commission for
one acre of ground and nothing in
the bill will prevent it. When the New Jerusalem proposition was submitted to a vote of the people two years ago, sixty-eight counties gave
it a majority of over 42,000.

Tulsa Will Also Prohibit Low-Hanging Awnings Over Sidewalks.

Tulsa, Ok., April 4.—The Commercial Club has started a crusade
against signs, bulletins and awnings

Recently the city was defeated in a suit for damages in which the plaintiff was injured by a falling sign.
The city building inspector will be
urged to clear the business section
of such encumbrances.

THE OFFICE OF STATE CORPORATION COMMISSIONER

An Able and Splendid Democrat. Especially Fitted for the Incumbency of the Office to Which His Friends Aspire for Him

Oklahoma:

I take this means of announcing
my candidacy for the nomination on
the Democratic ticket for the office
State of Oklahoma.

I was born and reared on a farm near Stone Fort in the southern part of Illinois. My father was from East Tennessee; my mother from Alabama.
I taught school five years and in 1894 graduated from the Northern Indiana Law school, since which time
I have been engaged in the practice of law. I came to Oklahoma ten years ago, and located at Madill. I was a member of the constitutional convention and at the close of the convention, the farmer delegates
passed a resolution and appointed a committee to ask me to run for the office of Corporation Commissioner
at that time. On my way to Oklahoma City to make my announcement
for this office, I learned that an injunction was issued by the federal court enjoining the issue of the proclamation to hold the election. Being a member of the convention's legal advisory committee I immediately upon my arrival at Oklahoma City,
got together a few of the delegates,
as a result of which, a committee was sent to Washington. Instead of announcing for the office, I devoted my
time with the legal advisory committee in assisting in dissolving the injunction before the Supreme Court of Oklahoma Territory.

By the effective work of the Committee that went to Washington and
the action of the Constitutional convention, upon the suggestions of the committee, statehood was made a certainty.

Upon the advent of statehood, I
was appointed assistant attorney general and assigned to look after all legal matters coming before the corporation commission, and have devoted my time almost exclusively to
this class of work and litigation in
the supreme and federal courts and
before the interstate commerce commission, growing out of public service regulation, rates and charges.
Since the two cent fare and the rates
prescribed by the Commission were enjoined, the greater portion of my
time has been devoted to getting up
evidence and assisting in preparation of and presenting those cases to the courts. These cases are still pending, and with the showing that we are able to make, I have full confidence that Oklahoma will ultimately
secure a fair and proper adjustment
and reasonable rates and the two
cent fare will be restored.

Upon entering the campaign for
this office I will tender my resignation as assistant attorney general,
but upon the request of the attorney general and the corporation commission, will devote all the time that is necessary to the two cent fare and freight rate litigation even though it takes my entire time out of the campaign. In that event I will necessarily have to depend upon those
who are in sympathy with maintaining reasonable freight rates and the
two cent passenger fare in the state of Oklahoma to look after my interest that I may assist in carrying this litigation to a successful end.

If elected, I will do just as I did
in the constitutional convention; as I have done in my work before the
commission and other public engagements in which I have participated—
that is I will serve the people to the very best of my ability.

Respectfully Submitted,
GEO. A. HENSHAW.

Quiet Election.

The responsibility for holding the election today was with the county board of elections.

The vote was light throughout the city and it is needless to remark that it went unanimously democratic.

Sorosis Notes.

Sorosis held its regular session at the South school Friday afternoon.

This being April 1st, the following program was carried out:

Response—Lines from the Poets of Shakespeare.

King Lear, Act IV, Scene 7. Act V, scenes 1-2.

Leader, Mrs. Barton.

Paper—"Child Rowland to the Dark Tower Came"—Mrs. McKeel.

Table Talk—"The Fool and His Mission in the Play."

The paper by Mrs. McKeel was excellent, and proved she had given it careful thought.

The sketch by Miss Johnson was fine. She left "no stone unturned" that could in any way tell of Lear's character.

As usual when Sorosis meets, it was a late hour when the good-byes were said.

There will be a called meeting at the school building Friday April 8th. All members requested to be present.

IF HIS STATE ENDORSES TARIFF
EMBARRASSMENT WILL

Indianapolis, April 4.—If the friends of United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge have their way in the republican convention which will name a state ticket here Tuesday, no mention in the platform will be made of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law or of county local option law, two questions that have caused party leaders deep concern during the last several days.

In view of the fact that Senator Beveridge voted against the tariff measure, his friends are determined that the convention shall not endorse it. While there is a considerable sentiment among the delegates for an endorsement of the tariff law, there was a disposition tonight on the part of the stand pat republicans not to make a fight on the floor of the convention against the report of the committee on resolutions which undoubtedly will contain no mention of the measure.

There is a strong element demanding that the local option law, which was passed by the republicans at a special session of the legislature shall be endorsed, but it is the plan of the friends of Senator Beveridge, who will undoubtedly be in control of the convention, to make no mention of it.

MISSION FOR ROOSEVELT.

Preacher Would Have Him Be Ambassador Extraordinary in Interests of Perpetual Peace.

New York, April 4.—"I nominate Theodore Roosevelt for the high office of Ambassador Extraordinary to all the courts of the world in the interests of universal and perpetual peace," said Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, in the course of an address to his current events class at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday.

"I believe," he said in conclusion, "that I have today spoken words which will ring from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and which will echo beyond the seas."

Mr. McArthur chose for his subject the question, "What Shall We Do With Theodore Roosevelt?" In answering his own inquiry, he said:

"Perhaps some people would prefer to put the question in this form. 'What will he do with us?' He is a unique man. His powers are manifold and symmetrical to a remarkable degree. He is a practical politician, an experienced statesman, a recognized literature, a mighty hunter and a great preacher, and a score of other remarkable things. What shall we do with such a man? How can his talent be best employed for the honor of the country and the good of mankind?"

"There can be no more exalted mission than the one I have named. Only those familiar with the facts know how many international disputes have already been settled by arbitration. Here we have a noble sphere for the varied experience of Col. Roosevelt. No one will ever accuse him of mollycoddle. He is as brave morally as he is physically and he has the ear of the civilized world in places high and low as no man ever had."

NEW LAW SWELLS REVENUES.

National Banks Pay State Fees to Become Reserve Agents.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—Bank Commissioner A. M. Young today made his quarterly settlement with State Treasurer James A. Manefee, treasurer of the state banking board, turning over to him $6,545 in fees collected by the bank commissioner's office for the examination of state and national banks during the last three months. The fact that national banks which desire to be approved by the state bank examiners has added materially to the revenues of that office.

More About Robbery.

McAlester, Ok., April 4.—Shortly after last midnight burglars blew the safe in the Bank of Stuart, at Stuart, twenty miles west of here, secured $1,600 and escaped on a handcar, traveling fifteen miles in this direction and abandoning the handcar. The robbers cut all the telegraph and telephone wires at Stuart.

The Town Marshal exchanged shots with the robbers as they were putting the handcar on the track.

BAILEY AND CALDWELL BEFORE SUPREME COURT

OKLAHOMA FROM U. S. SUPREME COURT AGAINST
DUTARY.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—The supreme court Monday heard arguments on an application for writs of prohibition to restrain Federal Judges Campbell and Cotteral of Oklahoma from issuing injunctions against the enforcement of the prohibition laws of that state. The application was filed on behalf of the state of Oklahoma by Senator Bailey and F. C. Caldwell, the prohibition enforcement attorney. It sets forth that the effect of injunctions is to prohibit the state from invoking the power of its own courts for the purpose of judicially determining the status of liquor brought into Oklahoma through interstate commerce prior to the time that the police power applies as provided by the Wilson act.

The argument was opened by Mr. Caldwell who contended that the injunction proceedings before the federal judges were intended to control the official conduct of certain state officers and are therefore in effect suits against the state in violation of the eleventh amendment to the constitution.

Lawrence Maxwell, of Cincinnati, representing the National Liquor Dealers association, began his argument a few minutes before the court adjourned for the day and will resume Tuesday. He argued that the shippers of liquor have sought relief on the injunction suits against interference of interstate commerce in course of transit.

The hearing will close Tuesday on behalf of Oklahoma with an argument by Senator Bailey. If successful it will be the second writ of prohibition ever issued in the history of the supreme court of the United States.

ABERNATHY SEEKS DIVORCE SUIT BROUGHT IN LAWTON

Youthful Bride of United States Marshal Said to Have Deserted Him.

Guthrie, April 5.—United States Marshal John Abernathy, feared by bank robbers, cattle thieves and wolves as much as he is admired by former President Roosevelt, is about to, or already has, instituted divorce against his wife, according to the most reliable information obtainable here last night. The grounds alleged are desertion and neglect of duty. It was reported that the suit would be filed in Lawton last night, or today.

Mrs. Abernathy was formerly Miss Almira Purviance, daughter of a wealthy Logan county farmer. She married the marshal, then a widower, with seven children, about two years ago, against the protests of her father. The latter's objections were based upon the fact of Marshal Abernathy's former marriage and six children whose care she would have to assume, and her own youth, she being then less than twenty years of age. One child was born of their union some weeks ago, a girl.

Mrs. Abernathy is now at the home of her father, J. A. Purviance.

Corporation Commission Issues Order Involving Ochelata Company.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The corporation commission today issued an order requiring the Ochelata water company to maintain its plant in such shape as to furnish sufficient water for both public and private use including fire protection.

The company has the franchise for both gas and water and was given the gas franchise only on condition that it also maintain a water plant. The company claims that it is not making money on the water plant but the commission holds that so long as it accepted its franchise it must maintain its water plant.

CLAIM LAW IS INVALID.

Prisoner's Attorneys Attack Act Passed at Special Session.

Guthrie, Ok., April 4.—The first action calling in question the constitutionality of a law passed by the special session of the legislature was an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed today in the criminal court of appeals for release of a man named Ray from jail at Arapaho. Ray was sent to jail by order of Judge J. W. Lawler of the superior court of Custer county, created at the special session because of refusal to put up alimony money.

Ray's attorney contended that the act creating the court is unconstitutional because it is local legislation.

Well, the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt is back in civilization! Welcome home, Teddy! It gives us pleasure to record your arrival safe, and well and quiet. And when finally you land again on the shores of this glorious country may many years of health, happiness and continued usefulness spread out before you. Could we wish you more.

If you have had your privations, so have we. If at times, food has been scarce for you, so also has it been for us. While the crack of your rifle has brought the mighty kings of the jungle to their knees, the crack of the Beet Trust's whip has been doing a little business, also, here at

Sulphur, Ok., April 4.—Great excitement prevails here over an oil strike in a well being drilled for artesian water by Mrs. W. B. Womack in the north part of the city. Oil was struck at a depth of 342 feet and rose sixty feet in the well. After a number of barrels had been bailed out the well filled quickly to within ninety feet of the top, then closed down. An expert oil man has been summoned and he will shoot the well Monday.

Oil men are flocking to Sulphur, many coming in on tonight's trains, and they are agreed that the oil from the Womack well is free from sand and of a superior quality. And their general opinion is that the well will prove a producer equal to the average in the Kiefer field. The Sulphur Light and Power Company, which uses the fuel oil from the Kiefer field fired their plant today with oil from the Womack well, and the manager claims the oil tests 30 per cent better for fuel than the Kiefer product.

The report of state and United States geologists indicates that an extensive oil field lies north of the city, and much of the land has been covered with leases. Several attempts have been made and thousands of dollars spent in trying to locate the oil, but wells sunk heretofore have been in the artesian water belt. The flow and pressure of the water has been so great that it could not be cased off, causing the wells to be abandoned. The hotels are full of strangers attracted to Sulphur by the excitement, and are awaiting the shooting of the well Monday.

London, April 4.—While England has some rather strenuous political questions to solve, parliament is a bit more interested in the question of who will get a ticket to Lord Roseberry's special party to visit the Jeffries-Johnson fight in the United States. Already half a dozen lords have been invited and have agreed to join in the tour of the United States. Within the next fortnight the list of the party will be completed. For various reasons Lord Roseberry calls his party a junket to Canada and the states, but San Francisco and July 4 are the real important point and date of the trip. Englishmen like a fight, and Lord Roseberry is a hero among his fellow lords, in suggesting the idea of making the trip. The party will leave England in May and after visiting Canada will go to New York and then in a special train slowly make their way westward to San Francisco, arriving in time to witness the big fight. Five cars will make up the special train. The party will be limited to twenty-five members of the nobility, but a corps of secretaries and valets will be taken along. The English consul in San Francisco has engaged ring-side seats for the party.

Punch.

A novelty for whist or social parties where a beverage is served: Strip, wash and bruise with potato masher enough mint to lightly fill a quart bowl. Cover with boiling water and steep, like any tea, for 10 minutes. Strain well and chill on ice. When cold add a cup of grape juice and one of raspberry or strawberry. Canned fruit may be used. Barberry juice is good, but not so easily obtained. Make a syrup of white sugar and water, boiled for 10 minutes, and sweeten with this to suit taste. Do not use raw sugar. If no fruit can be obtained or for any reason is not preferred, use lemon or orange or pineapple juice. Any way the punch looks nicer if a few slices of lemon float around in it. Add also a few sprigs of mint. The flavor is not pronounced and is agreeable.

Frosting the Cake.

For a delicious white frosting for a cake take one cup of granulated sugar, four tablespoons of cold water, and one tablespoon of vinegar. Boil for about five minutes, or until it forms a thread when dropped from a spoon. Have ready the whites of two or three eggs whipped to a stiff froth. Add the sugar syrup to the whites of eggs and beat vigorously until it is tight and creamy.

Spread thickly on the cake and set aside to harden. It is not necessary to put in the oven to harden.

A Jelly for Invalids.

Has it ever occurred to you to jelly fruits in the smallest possible glasses for the invalid friend? Glasses may be had which will hold but a quarter of the jelly usually put into the ordinary tumbler size.

While you may not want to carry to your friend just one of these tiny playthings, the variety that you could take in four of the little glasses would be novel and so much more acceptable to the delicate appetite than a quantity of one kind.

Cranberry Cheesecake.

Instead of cranberry sauce or jelly try a cranberry cheesecake with the roast. A pint of water at the end of sugar to each pint of juice should be frozen in the usual manner. When partly done stir in the white of one egg for each pint of juice, finish freezing, then add a cup of chopped crystallized fruit softened by previous soaking, repack the freezer and let stand for an hour to ripen.

Honeycomb Pudding.

Beat two eggs, add one-half cup sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup milk in which dissolve one-half teaspoon soda, one-half cup flour. Pour into pudding dish and bake in moderate oven 45 minutes.

Sauce: One cup sugar, one cup boiling water, butter size small egg, salt, one tablespoon flour dissolved in three tablespoons cold water, one-half teaspoon lemon extract.

Soft Chocolate Frosting.

One-half cup sugar, two-thirds cup of water, two squares chocolate grated, piece of butter size of walnut. Boil all together, add one tablespoon of cornstarch dissolved in water. Cook till it thickens. Stir in the beaten white of an egg and beat for two minutes. Add one teaspoon vanilla.
